- Nomination Information and Deadline
- Outstanding Individual Achievement Requirements
- Outstanding Organization/Program Requirements
- Nomination Forms

In 1989, the National Credit Union Foundation created the Herb Wegner Memorial Awards in honor of late CUNA CEO Herb Wegner, whose innovative ideas and deeds revolutionized the ways that credit unions serve their communities. The awards carry on Wegner's spirit of "innovative, creative, risk-taking" leadership.

Call for Nominations

Nominations can come from individuals and/or organizations. Current members of the Foundation's board and/or staff are not eligible for nomination. Complete the appropriate Award Nomination Forms located on the back of this brochure and submit along with at least five but no more than ten personal recommendations in support of the nomination. Personal recommendations may be submitted in either letter or video format and must cite at least three descriptive reasons for the nomination.

Selection Information

Selection will be made by the Foundation's Wegner Awards Selection Committee comprised of representatives from the Foundation and other credit union related organizations. Scoring will be based on information provided on the nomination form and in the letters of recommendation. Award recipients will be notified in September.

Awards Presentation

Awards will be presented at the 32nd Annual National Credit Union Foundation Dinner Presenting the Herb Wegner Memorial Awards on February 24, 2020 in conjunction with the Credit Union National Association's Governmental Affairs Conference (GAC) in Washington, D.C.
